Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between 13:00 Sun 17 Sep 2023 and
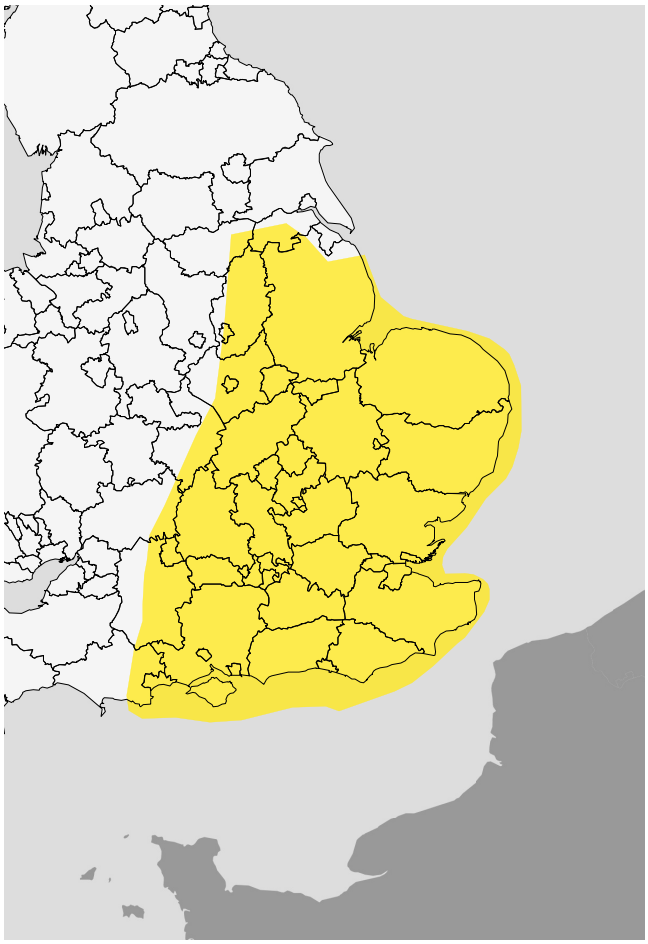
06:00 Mon 18 Sep 2023



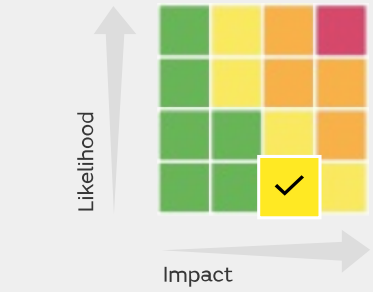
A small chance of disruption from severe thunderstorms later on Sunday.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a slight chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater causing danger to life

Further details

Heavy showers and thunderstorms are likely to arrive across southern England during Sunday and move northeastwards through the afternoon. From late afternoon through Sunday night there is a small chance of thunderstorms becoming severe, with large hail, frequent lightning, gusty winds, and torrential rain producing 30 to 40 mm in an hour. The most likely scenario is that impacts are more limited and isolated, but should these more severe storms develop, flooding and disruption could occur.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
